DAISY In Training Award
The Student Nurse

*Award recipients must be in good standing with the nursing department.

The DAISY Award was created in memory of J. Patrick Barnes. Mr. Barnes passed away at the age of 33 from complications of Idiopathic thrombocytopenic purpura, an autoimmune disorder that attacks the body. His family created the DAISY Foundation in his honor. DAISY is the acronym for Diseases Attacking the Immune System. This international program celebrates the extraordinary clinical skills and compassionate care that is provided by nurses every day.

Mary Grimes School of Nursing has implemented the DAISY In Training Award to celebrate the student nurse who has delivered extraordinary compassionate care.

The student nurse will have demonstrated a minimum of two of the criteria listed below:

- Demonstrates MGSON values of caring, professionalism, respect, integrity, diversity, teamwork, and excellence. Exemplifies the mission, vision, and philosophy of Mary Grimes School of Nursing.
- Has performed extraordinary acts of kindness or demonstrated extraordinary compassion.
- Demonstrates their commitment to compassionate care of patients and families.
- Advocates for individuals (patients/family members/peers).
- Establishes a special connection with patients and their families through trust and emotional support.

Selection Process:

- Nominations are made by completing the DAISY In Training Nomination Form or making an online nomination by using the program specific QR code posted in the nursing department or by going to the dsa.daisynomination.org/Neosho website. The QR code and web address is available on the NCCC Nursing Department webpage. A written form may also be submitted. The nomination may be made anonymously.
- The nomination information will include the example of extraordinary compassion that the student nurse demonstrated. Two of the above criteria must be met.
- The submitted nominations will be reviewed by the DAISY Selection Team.
- Nominations may be received until April 1st for the May Graduation and November 1st for the December Graduation.

The DAISY In Training Award will be presented at graduation. The recipient will receive a certificate, a pin, and a Healer's Touch sculpture. The Shona people from Zimbabwe hand carve each sculpture to honor those who are healers with great compassion.

The DAISY In Training Award

Nomination Form

I would like to nominate _____ as a deserving recipient of the DAISY In Training Award.
