

Administrative Withdrawal

---

The college reserves the right to withdraw a student from classes at any time during the semester. Generally, these withdrawals are initiated as a result of non-attendance of class, disciplinary problems, non-payment of tuition, fees, charges, and/or lack of student records to include transcripts from all previous post-secondary institutions.