

Program Review

---

The college has instituted a program review to assess program effectiveness throughout the campus. The review process is part of an institutional assessment project that began with student outcomes as mandated by the North Central Association. The review mechanism places maximum reliance on objective measures of program effectiveness with an opportunity to introduce subjective information at appropriate points in the process. The review may lead to program expansion, modification, or termination. All programs are reviewed in a pre-set cycle.

Revised: 01/15/04