

International Students

International students are an important part of NCCC's student body. Students from other countries enrolled at NCCC are in the service area primarily for the purpose of doing college work. International students must be in compliance with all state and federal laws and regulations.

Revised: 01/15/04