

Advisory Committees

---

The board of trustees appoints board advisory committees from time to time to assist in the study of special problems relating to the operation and administration of the college. These are committees with advisory functions only and it is understood that action can come only from the board.