

Amendment of Policies

---

With the authority granted to the board of trustees, the board has adopted the policies included herein. These policies may be amended at the discretion of the board. The procedure which will be followed for amendment shall be as follows:

These policies may be amended by a majority of members at a regular meeting of the board following notification of desire to amend at a preceding regular or special meeting.