

Liability Insurance

The board of trustees shall provide liability insurance to protect itself, the college, and the college employees with regard to employee actions performed clearly in the line of duty. The protection shall be limited to the terms of the insurance policy.