

Inventory

A detailed listing of furniture, vehicles and equipment, including computers is maintained through the chief financial officer. Capital assets are recorded and marked with an inventory number at the time of purchase. The inventory clerk conducts a complete visual inspection of each asset on an annual basis. Disposed items are identified and disposal date is recorded.

Added 3/12/15